mesday where he will have charge of the church made vacant by the death of the late S. A. Agnew, D. D.

Rev. T. G. Boyce, senior editor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian, and Pastor of Salem Church in West Tennessee, one of the largest congregations in the Synod was in Due West last week.

Rev. H. M. Henry, D. D., Pastor of Bethel Church at Oak Hill, Ala., lectured to the students of the Theological Seminary Thursday night. Dr. Henry is an able Minister, and gave the large audience a good lecture. Dr. Henry also did all the preaching during the communion occasion, and his sermon were instructive and helpful.

At the beginning of the services in the A. R. P. Church Sabbath morning a card was read from Dr. Neill E. Pressly, Tamploo, Mex., stating that Miss Fannie Wallace, a teacher in the Mission School in that city, was seriously ill with yellow fever. At noon a telephone message was received announcing the death of Miss Wallace at 1:30 Sabbath morning. Far away from home she was stricken and died in the service of her Master. Miss Wallace was well known in Due West, having been a pupil in the Due West Femaie College for two years, graduating in the class of 1891. She went to Mexico in December. 1890, and learning the Spanish language rapidly, she was engaged in teaching in the Mission School of the Associate Reformed Church at Tampico when the summons came. Her death is a serious loss to the Church and the Mission force in that land. Memorial services in honor of the december in Mission force in that land. Memorial services in honor of the december will be held in the Church at this place tonight, Monday.

At a special meeting of the Second Presbytery held in the A. R. P. Church Thursday night last, Rev. C. M. Boyd was ordained to the full work of the Gospet Ministry. The ordination yows were administered by Rev. F. Y. Bonner, the Moderator, and the ordination prayer was offered by Rev. F. Y. Pressly, D. D. Revs. J. W. Baird and T. G. Boyce of the Metaphis Presbytery addressed the candidate in a few appropriate and well chosen words. The solemn yows, the ordination prayer and the laying on of the hands of the Presbytery made the scene solemn and impressive. Mr. Boyd will supply the Churches at Prosperity and King's Creek in Newberry County.
